a flourishing business for the last month and real rushing trade in the last week. Manufacturing all their own vehicles and handling nothing

ing all their own vehicles and handling nothing but their own, their variety is not perhaps as extensive as many others, yet there seems to be little wanting in their present elegant display. The sales were of a general character, though their Le Petito victoria. Lawton traps and Lenox Depot wagons seemed to predominate. Something entirely new in the way of hackney gigs was shown for a few days last week, but was soon discovered by an admirer of novelties, and can now be seen any afternoon in the Park.

last week, but was soon discovered by an admirer of novelties, and can now be seen any afternoon in the Park.

F. E. Melvin, in charge of J. More & Co.'s harness and saddlery warerooms, in the American Horse Exchange Building, reports a greatly increased business. The firm is stocked with a fine line of imported and domestic harness and saddlery, as well as everything necessary for the horse and stable, and Mr. Melvin says everything is marked at wholesale prices.

The big carriage house of Van Tassell & Kearney, in Thirteenth-st., near Third-ave., is exhibiting one of the largest and most complete lines of pleasure vehicles ever shown by one firm. All the latest designs are in stock, and only the best makers are represented. The firm has about one hundred high-class carriage horses on private saie. These are all thoroughly broken and used to city sights, and are guaranteed sound and well mannered. Their regular semi-weekly auction sales, on Tuesdays and Fridays, are steadily increasing in volume, and good prices are realized for the more choice lots offered. The usual seasonable demand for horses and carriages for the country is much nevidence.

Flandrau & Co., of Broome-st., report a brisk choice lots offered. The usual seasonable demand for horses and carriages for the country is much in evidence.

Flandrau & Co., of Broome-st., report a brisk trade in omnibuses in the last week. The omnibus is yearly becoming more popular as a vehicle for country driving, being as well adapted for station use as for opera and theatre parties. The firm is also showing something particularly nice in station wagons in various styles, sizes and weights, and its assortment of wagonettes, cabriolets and spiders is a choice and extensive one.

William H. Gray, of Nos. 20 and 22 Wooster-st., reports good business in the last week, notwithstanding the wet weather, which retarded sales somewhat. Mr. Gray is showing a complete stock of carriages and traps, among them victorias, wagoneties and brakes, in different sizes, colors and designs. A number of new designs in depot wagons are shown, some elaborately got up, but all designed for hard work and plenty of it.

Mr. Innis, of the Studebaker Brothers' Manufacturing Company, Prince-st, and Broadway, says: "Trade is good in all lines. Although quite early, we have received several orders for fall delivery, among them being orders for two broughams. Our sales of farm wagons, business and express wagons were heavy last week. Our line of harness and horse goods is complete, and we guarantee entire saitsfaction."

M. F. Barnes, the Boulevard and Seventy-sixthst, is devoting a portion of the lofts of his building by electric light, a magnificent consignment trained and having all the Kentucky galts.

HORSE AND CARRIAGE NOTES.

Downey, Duncan & White, successors to J. B.

Brewster & Co., Nos. 487 and 489 Fifth-ave. and No. 143 West Fifty-first-st., are putting forth their best efforts to meet their steadily increasing trade. The firm is showing a rich and elegant stock of carriages, among which are many new designs. They are building to order a number of the celebrated

J. B. Brewster top wagons, of which they are the

George D. King, of Hillside Stock Farm, Springboro, Penn., now at the Colorado Stables, No. 225 West Fifty-eighth-st., has just received from his home farm a shipment of high-class harness and saddle horses, all browns, dark bays and blacks, thoroughly trained and ready for immediate use Mr. King reports a number of sales in the last week, both here and at the farm. At the latter place two pairs were sold, one pair of browns for $1,200 to Mr. Stevens, president of the Brooks Loco-motive Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., and the other pair (the second pair this season) to J. H. Hanna, son of Senator Hanna, for his father's personal use

M. B. Byers, of No. 21 West Sixty-second-st., with training stables at Rockland County Stock Farm, has upward of fifty high-class coach horses, cobs and roadsters and saddlers in his Sixty-second-st. stables. Mr. Byers guarantees every animal to be

The American Horse Exchange has certainly been a very busy place during the last week. Five been a very busy place during the last week. Five successful sales of harness and saddle horses were held under the management of W. D. Grand. The attendance on each occasion was large. A remarkable feature was the number of buyers who were evidently making their first investment in horse fiesh, and the presence of old-time customers, who have not been observed at the sales for years. The private dealers were kept busy between sales show-ing their horses in the ring, the weather permitting little to be done outside. F. M. Ware, the manag-ing director, announces that the first of the many yearling sales which will be conducted under the management of the exchange will take place or the evenings of June 7 and 8. The catalogues are now ready and can be had on application.

Morris Woodhull, of Nes. 266 and 267 Canal-st., has found business satisfactory at his new warerooms. He has a full line of handsome vehicles, suitable for city and country use. He particularly directs attention to his surreys and boulevard traps, which should please those who may want them.

CARPETS. Under the New Tariff, it is an assured fact that all Carpets will be not less than 25 per cent. higher than they now are. A word to the wise should be sufficient; buy now for future needs. Manufacturers are daily notifying us of advances. A letter just to hand reads:

"The above advances are necessitated by the actual increase in the prices of raw materials at this date, without reference to the pending Tariff. Should the bill pass in anything like its present form a further advance in all kinds of Carpets will be an imperative necessity." For To-Morrow, Three Strong

CHANGES IN THE 7TH REGIMENT. The resignation of Captain Daniel A. Nesbitt was referred to by Colonel Appleton in general or-ders, as follows: "The resignation of Captain Daniel A. Nesbitt has been accepted, and he has been honorably discharged. The faithful, efficient and honorable service of this officer for a period of thirty years is highly appreciated and acknowledged. During the eighteen years that he commanded the 2d Company it has maintained the prestige and distinction which it enjoyed throughout a long career of usefulness to the regiment while under the command of his able and famous predecessors, and Captain Nesbitt has the satisfaction of leaving his command in esprit and efficiency up to the standard, and with great possibilities for the future. Enlisted, private, Company B, November 4, 1867; sergeant, February 5, 1877; first sergeant, April 2, 1883; first lieutenant, November 18, 1886; captain, November 22, 1888.

An election was held on Friday night to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain Nesbitt, and Second Lieutenant James Schuyler was chosen without opposition. Sergeants Beach and Black are aspirants for the place made vacant by Lieutenant Schuyler's promotion.

The 7th Regiment occupied the ranges at Creedmoor on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and made a good record. The following are the general merit percentages: Company H, 814; Company F, 794; Company G, 714; and Company I, 705. By this score the O'Donohue trophy goes to the 8th Company.

Arrangements have been completed for the trip ciency up to the standard, and with great possi-

HE TOOK TOO LARGE A DOSE.

William Schulman, seventy-three years old, attempted to commit suicide yesterday afternoon by taking permanganate of potassium. He lives at No. 75 Avenue A. When discovered the man was No. 75 Avenue A. When discovered the man was unconscious, and an ambulance was at once called from Bellevue Hospital. Dr. Hong responded, and found almost a pint of the polson in the man's room. He attributed the failure of the poison to kill to too large a dose, asserting that a smaller dose would unquestionably have proved fatal. At Bellevue Hospital the man denied having any intention to commit suicide.

A letter was found in his pocket, however, written on April 29, in which he declared his intention of ending his life, as business reverses had made it impossible to live comfortably. He will be detained in the hospital until well enough to be arraigned in court on a charge of attempting to commit suicide.

M. F. Barnes, the Boulevard and Seventy-sixthst., is devoting a portion of the lefts of his building to storage purposes. Carriages stored there receive some attention during their stay, being dusted and looked after occasionally, which is more than can be said if stored in general warehouses. Mr. Barnes has already on the floor some desirable low-priced lots. The trade and carriage-owners are giving his well-furnished establishment merited consideration. W. D. Grand will sell on Wednesday next at the American Horse Exchange a special consignment of trotting-bred Michigan carriage and road horses, including matched pairs, roadsters and single drivers, all having speed and action, thoroughly broken
